

Canadian Gothic

by Norman Brown

the water
is what you notice first the water is as clear as starlight clean as a paper cut its surface high gloss smooth

the rock beneath the surface is orange
not too slippery
barely enough space to stand the last place the child was seen