

“CANADIAN LIT.”

I took a bus to Montreal
Because a young man should see his country.
I should have walked instead
Just down the street
And talked to someone who had theirs taken.

Maybe then I would have seen
What was behind the trees along the highway
Or heard the scream muffled
By the Maisonneuve statue and the name of my town.

Victor Lima
New Brunswick, Canada