

Create Poetry during AUGUST for 2026 Arts Dundas Art Walk

Tower poets are invited to create poetry in response to the work of Carnegie Gallery member artists from JULY 5th through AUGUST 9th for Arts Dundas 2026 storefront display.*

A special exhibit of Carnegie member artists' artworks on the main floor as well as members' artworks elsewhere in the Gallery are eligible for selection.

A SIGN-UP sheet will be available on the shop counter to avoid duplication of art works.

Please confirm availability of your selection(s) when signing up!

Beside your name, please indicate the artist and artwork(s)
to which you wish to respond:

Maximum 2 poems per poet, please
Maximum 2 artworks per artist in total

Carnegie Gallery location and hours are available at <https://carnegiegallery.org/>

Eleanore Kosydar and Gaiyle Connolly continue as poetry co-coordinators for this event.

Please submit your poems no later than SEPTEMBER 12th to info@towerpoetry.ca or to Eleanore Kosydar or Gaiyle Connolly

* ARTS DUNDAS WEEK, 2026: During early November, poems will be displayed in downtown Dundas storefronts alongside the art which inspired them. Participating poets will be notified of the location(s) of their poems once on display.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8th marks the final day of Arts Dundas celebrations

1 p.m. Guided Tour of Art Walk storefront displays
(begins at the front steps of the Carnegie Gallery)

2 p.m. POETRY READING by TPS members in the Lower Level of the Carnegie (Refreshments will be served)

*Event details will be announced in advance on the TPS website, EVENTS page: <http://www.towerpoetry.ca/>